

If It's News

“A weekly update on fire and life safety-related news, VDFP news coverage and press releases.”

This Week: December 14-18, 2015

Control + click to follow link

(State News)

Fire Kills Staunton Man

Hampton Fire-Rescue Receives Top Insurance Rating

Portsmouth Fire Department Delivers Gifts To Hospice Families

Smoke Alarm Installed By Covington Fire Department May Have Saved Lives

Loudoun County Donates Gear to Alabama Volunteer Fire Departments

New Honor For Roanoke Fire-EMS Could Save Residents Money

Fairfax One Helicopter Crew Commended by Fire Chief

(National News)

Maryland Safety Demonstration Focuses on Danger of Christmas Trees

Congress Passes Bill to Extend Health Coverage For 9/11 Responders

Firefighter Killed In Fall While Battling South Chicago Blaze

Phoenix-Area Firefighters Implement New Policy For Active Shooting Situations

2015 Costliest Wildfire Season On Record

(Events)

Governor's Fire Service Awards - Deadline December 31, 2015

If It's News is published by the Marketing and Communications Office for employees of the Virginia Department of Fire Programs. Questions regarding the content of this publication should be directed to the Marketing and Communications Office at (804) 249-1982. Although unclassified, information within this publication should be for Official Use Only. The publication should not be forwarded or furnished to the media or other agencies outside the emergency services community without expressed permission from the Marketing and Communications Office. Opinions/views are not those of the Commonwealth of Virginia or VDFP and are presented solely for informational purposes.